

State. One out of every four jobs in Washington State is directly tied to international trade, and we have a strong and growing trading relationship with the Asia Pacific region. This relationship has been established, expanded, and nurtured largely through cultural awareness first developed in the region by Asian-American immigrants. We all benefit from the contributions Asian Pacific Americans make to our community and country.

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is a celebration of the American spirit. We are a nation of immigrants, and by honoring Asian Pacific Americans, we honor all cultures.

RECOGNIZING KRISTIN VENZIAN

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. GRAVES. Mr. Speaker, I proudly rise to recognize Kristin Venzian of Parkville, Missouri. Kristin will be honored with the Billy Mitchell Award and Second Lieutenant Bars as a member of the Platte Valley Civil Air Patrol. As a member of the Civil Air Patrol, she has been moving swiftly through the ranks and is a member of the first string color guard, participating in various local events as a member of the team that won the Missouri State Color Guard Championship this year.

Kristin is a very active member of her school and the community. She received the President's Volunteer Service Award in 2005 and founded Kids Celebrate Soldiers, a foundation that sends thank you cards from children around the United States to American soldiers overseas. In school she is a member of the National Honor Society, the South Boulevard Singers, French Club, Teenage Republican Club, and a Captain on the Girls Cross Country squad.

After graduating from Park Hill South High School, Kristin hopes to enter the Air Force Academy and pursue a degree in Aeronautical Engineering with a specialty in engines. For many years she remains focused on becoming a pilot and serving in the Air Force throughout her career.

Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in recognizing Kristin Venzian, an outstanding student from Parkville, Missouri. Her commitment to the community and desire to serve her country should be commended. I would like to express my gratitude to her for her achievements and I am honored to represent her in the United States Congress.

TRIBUTE TO CINCO DE MAYO

HON. GENE GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Cinco de Mayo. Cinco de Mayo is not only a celebration of the victory of a small Mexican militia over the Napoleonic French forces at the Battle of Puebla in 1862, but also the commemoration of the friendship and goodwill that exists between the United States and Mexico to this day.

Following the Mexican War of Independence, Mexico found itself heavily indebted to Spain, France, and England. England and Spain quickly settled their debts, but Napoleon saw this as an opportunity to expand his empire and reclaim a portion of the New World.

France invaded Mexico in Veracruz, but was stopped from gaining passage to the Nations seed of government in Mexico City by General Ignacio Seguín Zaragoza and his small militia. Napoleon, however, would not be deterred. He sent 30,000 more troops and began a three month siege of Puebla, who finally surrendered and eventually took Mexico City. Napoleon appointed his cousin Ferdinand Maximilian of Austria as Emperor of Mexico. He was in power from 1864 until 1867 when the United States was able to provide assistance to Mexico after the conclusion of the Civil War and helped Mexico expel the French. Shortly after the French expulsion Maximilian was executed in Mexico.

Cinco de Mayo commemorates the Battle of Puebla in 1862 where General Ignacio Seguín Zaragoza and his small militia valiantly prevented the invasion of Mexico. This brave group of 4,500 men was able to prevent 6,500 French soldiers from marching on to Mexico City.

Mexico, and more recently, the United States both celebrate Cinco de Mayo. It represents a victory for the Mexican people and the beginning of a wonderful diplomatic relationship between the United States and Mexico that is not simply intertwined geographically but also culturally.

As a Texan I have an added respect for General Ignacio Seguín Zaragoza. He was born near the town of Goliad, Texas on March 24, 1829. A ten foot stature honoring General Zaragoza was dedicated in Goliad, Texas as a gift from the Governor of Puebla, Mexico.

IN MEMORY OF CORPORAL RICHARD PRICE WALLER

HON. KAY GRANGER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Ms. GRANGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the courage of a young hero from my district. On April 7, 2006, the Department of Defense declared that Corporal Richard Price Waller (United States Marines, Company C, 1st Battalion, 1st Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division) was killed in the line of duty while conducting combat operations against enemy forces in the Al Anbar Province of Iraq.

Corporal Waller, who was known as "Ricky" by family and friends, had dreamed since he was a young boy of following in the footsteps of a number of relatives who have served in the U.S. military over the last nine decades. Soon after graduating from Fort Worth's Western Hills High School in 2002, Ricky realized his ambition and joined the Marines. After boot camp, Ricky was assigned to Company C where he excelled and became a platoon leader who earned the nickname "The Motivator."

Ricky's dedication to protecting freedom and winning peace around the world was demonstrated in his unconditional devotion to duty. He was serving on his third tour of duty in Iraq when he was killed. Despite the dangers and sacrifice that Ricky faced in Iraq, he had informed his family that he planned to re-enlist with the Marines in the fall.

Ricky's family is also to be commended for urging other young men and women to take heart in the life of Corporal Waller who lived "for God, family and country, with love for all and with no regrets."

The American people know the sacrifices Ricky, like many other soldiers, made to his country and his memory will not be in vain. I am proud to honor Corporal Waller's service to the State of Texas and to the United States of America. He will not be forgotten.

TRIBUTE TO PASTOR DAVID L. EVERSON, SR.

HON. RON PAUL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. PAUL. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to pay tribute to my constituent, Pastor David L. Everson, Sr. A pastor for over 26 years, David Everson has spent the last seven years serving at the First Union Baptist Church in Galveston, Texas. During his time in Galveston, Pastor Everson has worked tirelessly to help his congregation, and all residents of Galveston. Pastor Everson's efforts have improved the lives of many Texans.

For example, Pastor Everson has been given an identification badge by the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB), one of Texas's most respected hospitals, so he may visit with, extend compassion to, and pray with and for people receiving treatment at UTMB and their families. Pastor Everson has also been given a badge by the Galveston Police Department in recognition of his work against drug abuse.

Education is an area of particular concern to Pastor Everson. In order to ensure his neighbors have access to adult education services, Pastor Everson initiated the First Union Baptist Church Community Center. Pastor Everson also regularly meets with local school board members and networks with other ministers to ensure all the children in Galveston receive a quality education. Pastor Everson is always willing to mentor any young person in his congregation, and he regularly visits local schools to provide support for the young people of Galveston.

Pastor Everson is always available to counsel and assist any members of his congregation with any problems they are having, or with any projects on which they are working. Even with his busy schedule, Pastor Everson still makes time to brighten the lives of his congregation. For example, in order to ensure senior citizens who are members of his congregation continue to enjoy a fulfilling social life, Pastor Everson takes them out for lunch and dinner, paying for their meals out of his own pocket.

In recognition of Pastor Everson's numerous good works, some members of his congregation have launched an effort to have Sunday, May 21, 2006 deemed Pastor David L. Everson, Sr. day. I am pleased to take this opportunity to pay tribute to Pastor Everson and thank him for all his good works.
